PwC Competition watch 2019

Key facts and figures
From 2002 to 2018

302 legal entities identified to have committed violations

381 days — The average duration of the examination of a violation

The severity of the fine — 1,49% of turnover, on average

Most companies had been fined between 2011 - 2013

326 pārkāpumi

of which 254 were especially serious

286 fines for prohibited agreements

40 fines for the abuse of a dominant position

Since 2002 in 43% cases the basis for the reduction of the fine was either the proportionality or the effectiveness principle

The biggest fine imposed on a single company in 2009 was

5 833 693,74 EUR

Fines have been imposed on 16 industries

The construction, transport and logistics sectors have been fined the most

510 days — Duration of the examination of particularly serious violations

Nozarē piemērotie sodi

- Building and construction 26,8%
- Healthcare and pharma 1%
- Education, media, creative industries 1,1%
- Telecommunication 2,4%
- Energy, utilities 6,2%
- Professional services 16%
- Food and beverages 21,4%
- Transport and logistics 23,2%

Final % of turnover by period on average

2006-2009	0,9%
2010-2013	1,7%
2014-2018	2,5%

Pārkāpumu ilgums

- 0-1 years 53,3%
- 1-5 years 31,9%
- 5≤ years 14,8%

Total reduction as a result of entering into administrative agreements: 3 974 077

Mitigating circumstances	29
Other	41
Administrative agreement	10
Leniency programme	6
Settlement	4

Reduction

up to	between	more than
30%	30-60%	60%
9x	19x	11x

In case of administrative agreement

Law firm PricewaterhouseCoopers Legal, Kr. Valdemara street 21, Riga LV-1010, Latvia, LV90010364699
T: +371 6709 4400, F: +371 6783 0055, www.pwclegal.lv
© 2019 PricewaterhouseCoopers Legal. All rights reserved. PricewaterhouseCoopers Legal is a law firm registered with the Latvian Bar Council.