Ukrainian Anti-corruption legislation has changed

Over summer two new anti-corruption legislative acts* came into effect. These laws significantly broadened the circle of operations that may be treated as corruption, as well as people who could be liable for it. The new anti-corruption legislation may potentially impair promotional and marketing activities in FMCG, pharmaceutical and other industries. PwC is ready to assist with putting current practices in line with new anti-corruption legislation.

 The Law of Ukraine "On principle of prevention and counteraction a corruption" dated 07 April 2011 No. 3206-VI and Law of Ukraine I "On introducing amendments to some legislative acts of Ukraine regarding liability for corruption violations" dated 07 April 2011 No. 3207-V.*
