PwC at the Board of Directors of AHK/German-Azerbaijani Foreign Chamber of Commerce

On 11 April 2013, Farid Isayev of PwC Azerbaijan Legal, was elected a Member of the Board of the German-Azerbaijan Foreign Chamber of Commerce (AHK). Farid will serve at this post together with five other Board Members that represent Lufthansa AG, Accessbank, Siemens AG, WILO and Sietek.

Farid Isayev is a Senior Legal Associate at PwC's Legal Practice in Azerbaijan. Before joining PwC, Farid worked as a lawyer at a regional law firm and legal counsel at VTB Bank (Azerbaijan).

Farid holds an LLB in International Law from Western University in Baku, Azerbaijan and from Kingston University in London, UK. Farid also has international experience working for one of the UK's largest oil trading companies – Glencore Energy UK, in London, UK. At PwC Legal Practice, Farid deals with complex legal issues in oil and gas, banking, FMCG, transportation/infrastructure, and other industries. Farid advises clients on corporate, banking and finance, licensing, employment and immigration, antitrust, marine and consumer law.

We wish Farid a very successful and enjoyable time in this new role!
