Azerbaijan Diplomatic Academy is a school of international affairs and business dedicated to preparing innovative global leaders and to promoting useful collaborative research on diplomacy, public and international affairs, business, and humanities and sciences. It offers Executive Education, Degree Programs and Certificate Program.

ADA was launched with a primary focus on Executive Education for Azerbaijani diplomats and later civil servants from other different government agencies in 2007. The primary objective of the Executive Education Program is to develop practical skills and analytical frameworks to tackle real-world issues. In 2012 with the launch of a new Business School and a clear demand for Corporate Training Programs ADA Executive Education has started to offer a variety of employee and management short term Corporate Trainings to companies and organizations in private sector.

PwC helps organizations and individuals create the value they're looking for. We're a network of firms in 158 countries with more than 180,000 people who are committed to delivering quality in assurance, tax and advisory services. Tell us what matters to you and find out more by visiting us at www.pwc.com. PwC refers to the PwC network and/or one or more of its member firms, each of which is a separate legal entity.
