
Press Release

Date: 13 May 2013

Contact: Farida Akhundova, PwC Azerbaijan

Pages: 1

“Youth to Business” Forum: growing future business leaders

PwC Azerbaijan is a Partner at the Azerbaijan Youth to Business Forum organized by AIESEC on 11 May 2013 at the Azerbaijan Diplomatic Academy.

During the event Movlan Pashayev, Country Managing Partner of PwC Azerbaijan, together with Nargiz Muradova, HR manager, made a presentation on the theme of leadership for the participants of the Forum. Movlan and Nargiz shared how PwC supports and encourages innovation and proactive leadership as well as some useful tips for building a professional career.

The “Youth to Business” Forum creates a platform to unite and connect the youth with the business world. The main idea behind the event is to share perspectives and propose possible actions around topics of global relevance. The Forum provided a great networking opportunity and covered three main areas: Innovation, Entrepreneurship and Sustainable growth. It also allowed the participants submit their CVs for further consideration by leading local business organizations.

Notes for editor:

PwC Azerbaijan provides industry-focused assurance, tax, legal and advisory services to various industries. Over 100 professionals working in PwC office in Baku, Azerbaijan share their thinking, experience and solutions to develop fresh perspectives and practical advice for our clients. Please see www.pwc.com/az for further details.

PwC helps organizations and individuals create the value they're looking for. We're a network of firms in 158 countries with more than 180,000 people who are committed to delivering quality in assurance, tax and advisory services. Tell us what matters to you and find out more by visiting us at www.pwc.com. PwC refers to the PwC network and/or one or more of its member firms, each of which is a separate legal entity. Please see www.pwc.com/structure for further details.