Randy/Andrew -

Could I please get a response from you on this right away?

As you'll appreciate, if your clients will not consent, we'll need to seek a production order from Judge Sewell. Given the limited time we have, we'll be submitting a request for an appearance before the judge as soon as possible to deal with the production issue. I expect that request will be in circulation later this morning (Vancouver time). So if you can get back to us beforehand, I'd appreciate it.

Randy/Andrew -

This is further to my voicemails to each of you earlier this afternoon.

There are some documents we are seeking from Catalyst to assist us in developing response evidence on the applications set for hearing on June 25. We understand Catalyst will not produce the documents without your consent.

The documents we are seeking are as follows:

- the correspondence between Catalyst and the Superintendent (FICOM) from about January 2010 to date concerning the funding of the plan;
- the current plan member booklet and any previous versions of the booklet over the last 10 years;
- the current trust agreement for the assets of the pension;
- the most recent audited financial statements of the pension plan; and,
- sample member statements over the last 10 years (we recognize that some of these, but perhaps not all representative ones, are in your clients' materials).

We would propose that these materials be released to all parties.

Would you please confirm your consent to this as soon as possible as we are as you know facing an impending deadline for delivering our response materials.

Thanks,

Jim Schmidt

I have your request and will consider it. As you know the company is both Plan Sponsor and Plan Administrator and therefore has duties in respect to these matters. We will assess your request for documents specifically in that context.

Bill -

Further to John's note just before lunch, what we expect we'll need to do is put before the court in an affidavit the following material:

1. the correspondence between Catalyst and the Superintendent (FICOM) from about January 2010 to date concerning the funding of the plan;
2. the current plan member booklet and any previous versions of the booklet over the last 10 years;
3. the current trust agreement for the assets of the pension; and,
4. sample member statements over the last 10 years (some of these, but perhaps not all representative ones, are in the applicants' materials).

As you'll appreciate, we'll need to source this material from your client. Can you please let us know what can be done to facilitate this as we need to get this in an affidavit very quickly.

Thanks,

Jim Schmidt

Subject: Catalyst - Documents

Bill -

We've decided to try to get the consent of the applicant groups for release of the documents as I understand from our talk earlier that Catalyst is only prepared to release the documents if the applicant groups (i.e. those represented by Koskie and Hunter) consent and if the documents are generally released or made available to each of the parties. I've left messages with Andrew Hatnay and Randy Kaardal and will try to get positions from them by the end of the day today, if possible.
