The Applicants seek a stay extension, an order authorizing amendments to the DIP arrangements, an order approving a claims process + an increase to the Administration charge.

The Applicants are continuing in their discussions with stakeholders on the subject of a viable restructuring plan + appear to be acting with due diligence + in good faith. They have successfully negotiated increased DIP facilities + the Government of New Brunswick is now a participant. It is prepared to advance up to $9 million under a pre-existing term loan facility but on a super priority basis with proceeds to be used exclusively for capital expenditures to complete the mill modernization project at Plaster Rock. The full DIP facility has also been agreed to by CIT + Rockfield. The stay extension request is to include Oct 16, 09 + there is sufficient liquidity to fund anticipated expenditures. The stay extension + the amendments are proposed.
