A certificate of three hours attendance will be issued to the participants for CPD (Continuous Professional Development) purposes.

The seminar will be conducted in the English language.

The New International Financial Reporting Standard for Small and Medium-sized Entities

This first seminar, on the new IFRS standard which will apply to small and medium-sized entities (SMEs) is offered free of charge by PwC Academy in Nicosia on 20 October 2009 and in Limassol on 26 October 2009.

The seminar will highlight the differences between the existing IFRSs and will assist participants to understand the main provisions of the new standard. It is addressed to executives of organisations with knowledge of existing IFRSs and will be involved in the preparation and/or audit of financial statements of SMEs.
