

Emissions Trading:

Ready for take-off?*

Key challenges and opportunities for the aviation sector

6 November 2007, Frankfurt/Main, Airport
Steigenberger Airport Hotel

- 10:00 Welcome and opening
Klaus-Dieter Ruske, Global Transportation & Logistics Industry Leader, PricewaterhouseCoopers
Day chair:
Hans Schoolderman, Director Sustainability & Climate Change Services, PricewaterhouseCoopers
- 10:05 Ready for take-off?
Launch of the survey report
"Ready for take off? The inclusion of aircraft operators in the EU emissions Trading Scheme"
Key findings and what can the aviation sector learn from the other industries already under the EU ETS?
Jeroen Kruijd, PricewaterhouseCoopers
- 10:25 Allocation and reporting
Understanding allowance allocation and reporting obligations under the EU ETS
Jasper Faber, Senior Consultant, CE Delft
- 10:40 Coffee break
- 11:00 Key elements of the Commission proposal and next steps
Niels Ladefoged, Unit C3 – Clean Air and Transport, EU Commission DG environment
- 11:20 Monitoring and reporting
- Best practice monitoring and reporting.
Efficient use of existing data and difficult elements
Karlheinz Haag, Head of Environmental Issues, Lufthansa
 - Smart solutions for monitoring and reporting
Randolf Hager, Business Development Manager
- 11:50 Verification and compliance
- What does a verifier do?
Getting yourself prepared on time
Jeroen Kruijd, PricewaterhouseCoopers
 - Managing compliance:
Organising the role of the competent authority
Aniel Bangoer, Climate Change and Industry Directorate, Dutch Ministry of VROM
- 12:10 Reflection on morning session
Hans Schoolderman, PricewaterhouseCoopers
- 12:30 Lunch break
- 13:30 The economic impact – how will the EU ETS influence the aviation markets
- Economic considerations
Robin Smale, Director, Vivideconomics
 - Level playing field between and within sectors
Phillipe Eydaleine, Permanent Representative, Air France

- 14:00 The impact on aviation businesses and their strategies
- Business impact considerations: A cargo carrier perspective
Uwe Detering, Manager Public Affairs, United Parcel Service
 - How to navigate through the accounting jungle: CO₂ – allowances and IFRS
Raphael Heiner, PricewaterhouseCoopers
 - An airport perspective on daily operations and abatement options
Emanuel Fleuti, Environmental Services, Zurich Airport
- 14:40 Coffee break
- 15:10 Trading allowances – How do markets work?
- Trading strategies
Ian Milborrow, PricewaterhouseCoopers
 - Market structure and behaviour: Looking backwards and forwards
Eva Karra, Director of Commodity Trading, Lehman Brothers
 - Managing risk in tomorrow's carbon market
Andreas Arvanitakis, Senior Analyst, PointCarbon
- 15:45 Take off! – Preparing for 2008
Starting the engines: What should be on your agenda on the short and mid term? Summary of key findings of the sessions
Moritz Nill, PricewaterhouseCoopers
- 16:00 Panel discussion
Moderator
Hans Schoolderman, PricewaterhouseCoopers
- Panel
Niels Ladefoged, EU Commission
Karlheinz Haag, Head of Environmental Issues, Lufthansa
Thomas Wyns, Policy Officer Emissions trading, Climate Action Network
Franzjosef Schafhausen, Deputy Director General Environment and Energy, German Ministry for the Environment
Sanjeev Kumar, EU ETS coordinator WWF European Policy Office
- Special guest
Peter Liese, Rapporteur European Parliament
(Mr. Liese confirmed to be happy to join the panel. His obligations as a MEP may prevent his attendance)
- 16:50 Wrap Up
Klaus-Dieter Ruske, PricewaterhouseCoopers
- 17:00 Networking drinks & snacks

Professional contacts

Moritz Nill
PricewaterhouseCoopers
Climate Change Services
+49 30 2636-1398
moritz.nill@de.pwc.com

Jeroen Kruijd
PricewaterhouseCoopers
Climate Change Services & Aviation
+31 6 5115-8880
jeroen.kruijd@nl.pwc.com