Effective August 1, 2011, the Alabama Department of Revenue will temporarily bar the electronic filing of state corporate income tax returns (Form 20C) and consolidated corporation income tax returns (Form 20C-C). The prohibition is due to processing errors with electronically transmitted Alabama returns received from federal consolidated filers. During the period of the restriction, taxpayers will have to file paper returns. The department plans to remove the e-file restriction prior to the 2012 filing season. Taxpayers may contact the ADOR by telephone at (334) 242-1200 or by e-mail at melody.moncrief@revenue.alabama.gov with any questions they may have about the corporate e-file restriction.
