

International Tax Services (ITS)

Constant changes in the global marketplace require efficient business advisory services to analyse the applicable tax implications for business strategies of groups conducting or planning activities in multiple jurisdictions.

Derived from the continuous growth of national and international operations, companies and organisations are encouraged to develop markets and make investments in other countries.

PwC Mexico's International Tax Services (ITS) group provides tax advisory services and implementation support with the challenges and related tax considerations for international operations. Our team helps multinational enterprises to achieve their business goals and to be competitive, both locally and globally.

Our International Tax Services include:

- Advice on the treatment of overseas payments and the application of tax relief offered by double taxation treaties
- Strategies for mergers and acquisitions
- Inbound and outbound structuring
- Permanent establishment issues and compliance
- Planning and selection of holding company jurisdictions
- Management of intellectual property and other intangibles
- Cross-border financial transactions
- Bonded manufacturing and “maquiladora” structures
- Foreign tax credit optimisation

We are part of a leading global network of firms, able to provide solutions for important, critical or complex challenges in your business. At PwC Mexico you can count on diverse specialties, providing comprehensive business, tax and legal advice.

We help companies navigate the intricacies of statutory reporting and tax compliance, and provide professional advice on operational strategies to protect new market entrants from tax and financial risks as part of our commitment to help address organisations’ business challenges around the world.
