specifying in Search field name of the country (Montenegro) or requisition number (16385BR).

You must know that the first stage of the application process is submitting the application form and taking 2 online tests: Numerical Reasoning and Logical Reasoning. These tests are an important part of your application, and will help us to get a better understanding of your skills and competencies. You should ensure that you have about 60 minutes available to complete both tests and ensure, as much as possible, that you will not be interrupted or disturbed (you may need some rough paper and a calculator to hand to answer the questions). You can complete it later by log into your account. You will be given the opportunity to read instructions and take a practice test before taking the real test.

Please note that only complete applications will be considered, so please make sure that you answer all application questions and submit your tests.

All applications submitted to PwC by prospective employees will be dealt with in strict confidence, and in compliance with the PwC Global Data Protection Policy, as well as all relevant local legislation. All data provided to PwC by prospective employees will be stored in a PwC database, created and maintained for exactly such purpose, for a period of one year and will be used for recruitment purposes only. PwC will not share this data in any other case unless prior written consent is obtained from the data owner. In case of the establishment of an employer-employee relationship between PwC and an applicant, such applicant's data may also be shared with third parties if this is necessary under relevant provisions of Montenegrin law, or if it is necessary to do so in order to prove/establish rights and obligations related to employer-employee relationship between PwC and the employee.
