Training content – Who is it for?

Finance for non-finance professionals

This training is intended for all managers in non-financial areas of an organisation who are making business decisions with financial implications and need to understand and interpret financial information.

IFRS Basics

The course is intended for professionals with a background in finance having a responsibility in the accounting, reporting and/or controlling area at the beginning of their professional career without previous knowledge.

Legal

As a result of the frequent amendments of the two most important laws in the day-to-day business activities of each company, the Labor Relations Law and the Companies Law, this training is designed to share PwC knowledge and experience on the practical implementation of the recent amendments, with special focus on the rules regulating the Major & Interested Parties Transactions and other recent amendments in these two laws.

PwC

Tax Week

The tax week is intended for accountants and tax / finance managers responsible for preparation of various taxes and Finance Directors responsible for the control and supervision of the taxes. The tax week is tailored as trainings on various taxes, each day is dedicated to a new tax training. This is the schedule for the tax week:
