PwC names new Director Nicolas Vaudin in its Advisory Line of Service

Ebène – 7 October 2011 – PwC Mauritius announced today the appointment of Nicolas Vaudin as a Director in its Advisory Line of Service. Nicolas brings to PwC his experience in property development and management, and will lead our Property Industry Group activity, which offers a full range of property development and management services, from planning of greenfield projects to building renovations and/or redevelopment.

Aged 39, Nicolas worked overseas in the hotel industry before starting his career in Mauritius with Sun Resorts Limited. After 9 years in various roles, he joined CIEL Properties in 2005 as Operations Manager on the Anahita Project and was promoted to General Manager 5 months later. He overlooked all aspects of the Anahita Project including design, construction, management contracts, sales and marketing, financing and legal.

Nicolas holds a Swiss Hotel Diploma, a Bachelors Degree in Hospitality Administration, as well as an MBA at Surrey University in the UK.
