Law no. 237 regarding the amendment of the Labour Code has been published in the Official Gazette.

Employers' liability towards employees has been extended also to moral damages caused to the employee during, or in connection with, the performance of the employee's duties.

This liability for moral damages comes in addition to the existing liability for material damages under the Labour Code.

For more information in respect of the amendments to the Labour Code, please contact Sorin David or Dan Dascalu.
