

The Academy

Training on IFRS, US GAAP statutory accounting and taxes

This is the 7th year that leading IFRS experts in PwC have prepared training for our clients. Over 1000 clients have already attended our IFRS training. This is the reason why we have prepared for you set of trainings focused on IFRS, statutory accounting and tax also this year. New in 2015 is US GAAP training, which will be delivered by PwC manager Kevin Gary in English language.

Tutors of the Academy

Our team of managers with experience in preparing and auditing IFRS financial statements, and in IFRS training, is led by Juraj Tučný, Partner at PwC. Juraj has been a member of the group of experts within the PwC global network specialising in providing IFRS advice for many years. Juraj spent several years working in PwC London and PwC Moscow in accounting advisory and IFRS consulting services.

Martin Gallovič, director of audit department at PwC, takes an important part in preparing the trainings. His specialization is providing accounting advisory – the first application and the conversion to IFRS, application of new standards in IFRS, the support in complex transactions and restructuring.
