The State Enforcement Service and the State Registration Service to be terminated

The Cabinet of Ministers of Ukraine by its Resolution* has reorganized certain executive authorities, namely:

- the State Enforcement Service of Ukraine, which is responsible for compulsory execution of court decisions, and the State Registration Service of Ukraine, which is responsible for registration of legal entities, private entrepreneurs, rights and encumbrances to real estate, franchise agreements, non-government organizations, print media and civil status acts, will be terminated;
- their powers will be transferred to the Ministry of Justice of Ukraine;
- during the transitional period, the local departments of the enforcement and registration services will continue to execute their obligations and will be coordinated and controlled by the Ministry of Justice of Ukraine.

The Resolution* became effective 28 January 2015.

We will keep you updated on further developments on this issue.
