Foreword

Francis Kamulegeya
Country Senior Partner

At PwC, our purpose is to build trust in society and solve important problems. We're a network of firms in 157 countries with more than 223,000 people who are committed to delivering quality in assurance, tax and advisory services. Find out more and tell us what matters to you by visiting us at www.pwc.com

In Africa, we are the largest provider of professional services with PwC member firms in 54 countries and close to 10,000 people. Combining global expertise with local know-how, our people can help you grow and manage change wherever you operate in Africa.

In the East Market Region, PwC firms in Uganda, Kenya, Tanzania, Rwanda, Zambia and Mauritius operate in a region that shares many common growth trends and profiles. Many of our clients are also operating on these countries as a regional business. Therefore our regional grouping ensures that we are in a better position to service them better and quickly respond to their business needs.

PwC Uganda has a long established practice serving government, developing Partners and other international financing institutions, as well as the private sector which enables some of the bigger global and regional companies and brands operating in Uganda. Our local capability comprises 4 Partners and over 150 professionals who combine their in-depth understanding of local business, social, cultural and economic issues with deep technical expertise and industry knowledge.

This local expertise, combined with our global network, will create huge opportunities for young, energetic and ambitious graduates who want to benefit from ideas that challenge conventional thinking and gain new perspectives.

PwC Uganda has grown tremendously in recent years and we expect this growth to continue as the market demand for high quality industry focused, value adding consultancy services continue to grow.

As a result of this we are now looking for ambitious, highly motivated and dynamic candidates to be part of this growth. So step out and join the world's leading professional services firm. We look forward to welcoming you aboard a life changing experience.

The kind of people we look out for

We recruit strong university graduates, regardless of the nature of the degree - be it business, art or science oriented.

But, academic performance is not enough. You need to:

- Understand and show interest in client service and be able to respond flexibly to meet clients' needs
- Be naturally collaborative and committed to building relationships with your colleagues and clients
- Communicate clearly, listen effectively and influence others
- Take advantage of new learning opportunities and be creative in your thinking

How to apply?

By now you probably have a fair idea of how you would like to launch your career with PwC. Before you proceed any further, we recommend that you do some thorough research on our website:

www.pwc.com/ug/careers.

Our website features more details about the respective lines of services as well as an abundance of information on other facets at PwC.

Have the following documents ready with you before you apply: cover letter, comprehensive resume, detailed academic transcripts (provisional university results, A level and O level certificates) and other relevant documents which may assist us in processing your application.

For your information, we will be recruiting people to start on 1 September 2017.
