

Corporate law for finance departments

PwC's Academy in Angola
From professionals to professionals

Main day-to-day corporate obligations of the company

Objective

To make the financial departments aware of the main impacts and corporate procedures and other legal aspects in the day-to-day of the company

The presentation of contents will be complemented with practical examples.

Recipients

Directors and staff of the financial department of companies in any sector of activity

Online with trainer,
18 & 19 May 2022

Scan the QR Code to learn more about PwC's Academy Angola.

Program

1

Business structures

1.1. Companies

- Shareholders
 - number of shareholders
 - obligations and rights
 - responsibility
 - representation of shareholders at general meetings
 - shareholder agreements
 - local content rules in the ownership of shareholdings
- Share capital
 - loss of half of the share capital
 - increase and decrease in share capital
 - reserves
 - audited accounts
- Transfer of shares
- Governing bodies
 - representation and bidding of the company
 - management / Board - amendments, powers, etc
 - secretarial services
 - duties and responsibilities
 - criminal responsibility
- Incorporation process

1.2. Branches

- Characteristics
- Registration process

2

Equity finance and distributions

- Ancillary capital contributions
- Supplementary capital contributions
- Shareholders loans
- Dividends

3

Others

- Restructuring (e.g. mergers, de-mergers, acquisitions, winding-up and liquidation)
- Insolvency and corporate restructuring

Duration: 6 hours

Time: 09:30 AM - 12h30 AM on 18 and 19 May

Value: 600.000 AOA*

Includes: support materials and PwC training certificate

Enroll at: www.pwc.com/ao/academy or send an email to: ao_pwcsacademy@pwc.com

PwC reserves the right to admission

We reserve the right to carry out the exchange rate correction, through the issuance of an additional invoice with the difference between the value in AOA on the date of effective payment of the invoice and the value on the date of issuance of the same, in case there are exchange variations of devaluation of the AOA against USD against the exchange rate used on the date of issue of the AOA invoices.

Attendance at the training event is subject to advance payment of the registration fee.

Trainers

Luís Andrade

Director

Luís Andrade is a Director of the Tax department of PwC Angola, being responsible for the Corporate Tax, M&A Tax and Corporate and Regulatory Services in Angola.

In PwC since 2002, Luís has over 16 years of experience in national and international tax planning, corporate restructuring and investment structuring.

Has been involved in several transactions in different sectors of activity, both for Private Equity and Corporate clients, and a considerable experience in privatization processes.

Cátia Santana Lemos

Manager

Cátia is graduated in Law and a post-graduated in Corporate Finance & Governance from the Law School of the University of Lisbon.

As Manager of the Corporate & Regulatory Services practice at PwC Angola, Cátia has been involved in regulatory advisory projects related to private investment, foreign exchange transactions, corporate restructuring and structuring of investments in Angola and other corporate matters, regulatory due diligences and structuring of foreign exchange transactions, for national and international companies with presence in Angola.

Cátia has experience in various business sectors in Angola, such as oil and gas, mining, trade and industry.

Maria João Gomes

Senior Consultant

Maria João is graduated in Law and post-graduated in Administrative Law from the Law School of the University of Lisbon, having joined the Corporate & Regulatory Services department of PwC Angola in 2017 and currently being a Tax Senior Consultant.

As a Senior Consultant, Maria João has been involved in the provision of regulatory assistance in relation to private investment projects, corporate structuring and restructuring transactions as well as foreign exchange structuring to national and international companies with presence in Angola.

Contacts

Informations

PwC's Academy Luanda

Tel: +244 227 286 109

ao_pwcsacademy@pwc.com

Luanda

PricewaterhouseCoopers

Edifício Presidente, Largo 17 de Setembro, nº 3, 1º

andar - Sala 137 Luanda - República de Angola

Visit us on social networks

<http://www.pwc.com/ao/academy>