“Business on High Heels” – PwC’s “After Six Club” held its third meeting

On 10th March, PwC's "After Six Club" held "Business on High Heels", the third meeting of the club dedicated to the leadership of women in business. The event took place in a favourite women venue, Emporium cafe and concept store.

The guest speaker of the meeting was the Member of Parliament of the Azerbaijan Republic, Ms. Ganira Pashayeva who talked about the success of Azerbaijani women in business, social and political life, creation of equal opportunities for women and gender balance as well as the importance of women engagement in social responsibility issues.

Ms. Pashayeva also presented several of her author books to the guests and discussed the ways of further cooperation between the government and private sector.

PwC's "After Six Club" is an informal platform for content driven discussions, debates, talk-shows on hot business topics, target socializing and special benefits provided by partners. The club unites the clients and strategic partners of PwC Azerbaijan and creates conditions for informal and target socializing
