Amendments to the law on Telecommunication

According to the amendments, both an operator and a provider of Internet telecommunication services must register with the Ministry of Transport, Communications and High Technologies (hereinafter referred to as the "Ministry") within 15 days after commencement of services provision. In case of changes in registered information, operator and provider should inform the Ministry within 10 days upon these changes took place.

The amendments provide that operator / provider should respond to inquiries from law enforcement agencies, ministries and courts within 3 working days.
