Amendments to the Law on Road Traffic

According to the introduced changes, any expatriate or stateless person staying in Azerbaijan is authorised to drive a vehicle on the basis of a driver licence issued by the relevant authority of foreign country. In case the person resides on the territory of Azerbaijan on the basis of temporary or permanent residence permit, he/she should get local driver license within one (1) month effective the date of issuance of the residence permit.

Amendments to the Migration Code of Azerbaijan

According to the amendments, each application for electronic visa to be checked through "Entry-exit and registration" e-system within 3 (three) business days upon submission. Information on issuance or non-issuance of the visa to be emailed to the applicant.

New procedure of choosing a contractor for market research services

The procedure of organization and holding of tenders among local and foreign legal entities and individuals for market research services became into force on 23 November 2016. According to the procedural rules, such tenders should be held in accordance with the Law on Public Procurement.
