For PwC Bermuda, diversity is a priority because we need the best available talent to create value for our clients, people and community. We hire and nurture professionals who take a variety of approaches to problem-solving, who are willing to challenge the status quo, who think differently from one another, and who come from many different backgrounds and cultures. We do this because to solve important problems we need diverse talent. Our captive team is a diverse group of individuals who can be leveraged to best support the varying needs and professional requirements of our clients.

Multilingual

Members of our team are fluent in Spanish and ready to assist Latin American corporations with an interest in establishing captives in Bermuda. Our understanding of the culture and economic environment, together with our relationships with PwC firms across Latin America, gives us the ability to meet your diverse needs.
