PRICewaterHOUSECOOPERS NAMED BEST COMPANY FOR GLOBAL DIVERSITY
BY DIVERSITYINC

PricewaterhouseCoopers has earned the top spot on DiversityInc’s 2009 “Top Companies for Global Diversity” list, a select group of ten companies chosen for their strong commitment to creating a diverse and inclusive global culture.

DiversityInc selected PwC in first place, in the company of other winners such as IBM, Procter & Gamble and Cisco Systems (full list below).

1 PwC  6 Deloitte
2 IBM  7 Colgate-Palmolive
3 Procter & Gamble  8 Novartis Pharmaceuticals
4 Cisco Systems  9 Bayer Corporation
5 PepsiCo  10 Accenture

"It is an honour to have been chosen as the best company for global diversity by DiversityInc," says PwC Global CEO Samuel A. DiPiazza Jr. "Diversity is at the heart of our business. It impacts client satisfaction, the quality of our services and thinking, innovation and the overall engagement of our people. Our goal is to maintain an inclusive global workplace in which all of our people can reach their full potential both personally and professionally."

Among the reasons why PwC made it to the top of the list:

• In 2006, PwC formed the Gender Advisory Council (GAC), an international group of 14 senior male and female leaders from around the world who actively work to improve the representation of PwC women in the workplace
• The GAC commissioned a gender data report on 24 key territories, to help it understand the figures, the patterns and the local issues. Country specific recommendations around the use of targets and change management actions were produced, communicated and measured.
• The GAC also produced a ground-breaking report on the loss of female talent, "The Leaking Pipeline: Where are our Female Leaders?" and commissioned the film "Closing the Gender Gap", which examines the world in 2050 and the impact of female labour on development and progress.
