PricewaterhouseCoopers awards prizes to top high school students

July 2009, Bermuda – PricewaterhouseCoopers has awarded a range of prizes to a graduating student at each of Bermuda's high schools. All the awards are related to business studies and were presented by a PricewaterhouseCoopers employee to the award winner, at their school's graduation or prize-giving ceremony. The awards were as follows:

Lindsey Pavao - Berkeley Institute – PricewaterhouseCoopers award for most outstanding student in business studies

Riann Ming - Bermuda High School – PricewaterhouseCoopers award for excellence in accounting studies

Janeiro Watts - Bermuda Institute – PricewaterhouseCoopers award for excellence in mathematics

Jecar (Manalansan) Chapman - CedarBridge Academy – PricewaterhouseCoopers award for the most outstanding student in mathematics

Michelle Kelly and Chiara Lombardi - Mount Saint Agnes Academy – PricewaterhouseCoopers award for the most improved student in economics

James Hillen - Saltus Senior School – PricewaterhouseCoopers award for excellence in business studies

Ian Bucci - Warwick Academy - PricewaterhouseCoopers award for the most improved student in mathematics

Darren Johnston, Senior Partner at PricewaterhouseCoopers commented on the awards, "We are pleased to recognise local high school students who have excelled in their studies throughout the school year, and offer sincere congratulations to them on their accomplishments. These high school awards are just one aspect of PricewaterhouseCoopers' ongoing commitment to the education of Bermuda's youth and one small part of our HeadStart programme which provides support to young people as they attend university and launch their careers."

As award winners, the students have the opportunity to lunch with PricewaterhouseCoopers employees and discuss future opportunities at the Firm. The students also received a plaque naming them and the award they received, as well as a gift certificate to The Complete Office. PricewaterhouseCoopers has been presenting these awards to students for six years.
