NYSE to Suspend Trading in Lone Pine Resources Inc. and Commence Delisting Proceedings

NEW YORK — September 11, 2013 — The New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) announced today that the staff of NYSE Regulation Inc. (NYSE Regulation) has determined to commence proceedings to delist the Common Stock (the “Common Stock”) of Lone Pine Resources Inc. (the “Company”)—ticker symbol LPR—from the NYSE. Trading in the Company’s Common Stock will be suspended prior to the opening on September 16, 2013. Trading is expected to continue on the Toronto Stock Exchange under the symbol “LPR”.

NYSE Regulation reached its decision to delist the Common Stock pursuant to Listed Company Manual (“LCM”) Section 802.01B, in view of the fact that it has fallen below the NYSE’s continued listing standard regarding average global market capitalization over a consecutive 30 trading day period of less than $15,000,000, which is a minimum threshold for listing.

In addition, the Company had previously fallen below the NYSE’s continued listing standard in Section 802.01B of the LCM which requires the Company to maintain an average global market capitalization over a consecutive 30 trading day period of not less than $75,000,000 and its business plan materials were currently under review. Furthermore, the Company had also previously fallen below the NYSE’s continued listing standard in Section 802.01C of the LCM for average closing price of less than $1.00 over a consecutive 30 trading day period and continued to operate under a cure period.

NYSE Regulation notes that it may make an appraisal of, and determine on an individual basis, the suitability for continued listing of a listed security in light of all pertinent facts and circumstances whenever it deems such action appropriate. In addition, NYSE Regulation may, at any time, suspend trading in a security and commence delisting proceedings if it believes that continued dealings in or listing of the security on the NYSE are not advisable.

The Company has a right to a review of this determination by a Committee of the Board of Directors of NYSE Regulation. The NYSE will apply to the Securities and Exchange Commission to delist the Common Stock upon completion of all applicable procedures, including any appeal by the Company of the NYSE Regulation staff’s decision.
