

Download Management Bot (Iron Bot)

Download Management Bot is web based application for entering request to download data sample from e-archive.

Web user interface to provide simple request input and its validation as well as to be able to provide downloaded samples for download. At the backend there is the SQL database and connected UiPath bot which is going to specific e-archive and based on request it is downloading selected samples.

Product Owner

Petr Stejskal

petr.stejskal@pwc.com
+420 734 238 761

Additional Contacts

Vladimir Jaros

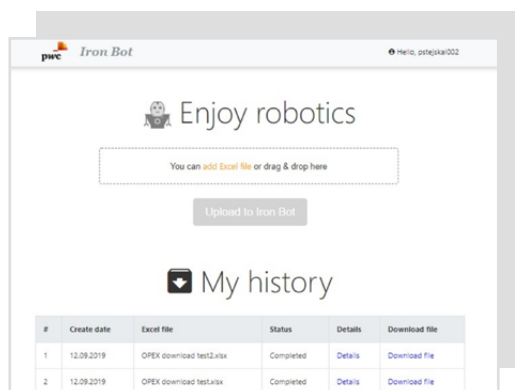

vladimir.jaros@pwc.com
+420 734 527 144

appstudio.pwc.com

Is this tool globally endorsed?

This solution is locally available only

Products currently only available in one territory or region and broader use/ adoption would need to be agreed with the owning territory on a case by case basis.

Key Benefits

Automated manual process

Effectivity the manual work is now taken by bot and done overnight

No need to educate people as it is intuitive form

