A woman with dark hair and glasses is smiling and looking towards the right. She is wearing a black sleeveless top. In the background, several other people are seated at a long table in a bright, modern office or meeting room. There are laptops, papers, and a coffee cup on the table. The scene is brightly lit with natural light from a window. There are two large circular graphic elements: a yellow one in the top left and an orange one in the bottom right.

Lean Six Sigma Training Program

Lean Six Sigma is a management methodology that aims to increase quality, performance and customer satisfaction with lower costs. Its two main focusses are the systematic elimination of waste from every process in the company and only keeping activities that are of value to the customer.

Our practical courses will help you to understand what a Lean way of working looks like and what Lean thinking is all about. Throughout Lean Six Sigma courses, you will solve real-life problems and learn how to map and analyse processes, come up with innovative solutions and manage a change.

Digitalisation

If you want to start the digital transformation in your company, you need to first map and optimise the processes. And that's exactly where Lean Six Sigma can help you.

Innovation and business development

Find smart solutions that make things easier, faster, cheaper and of higher value.

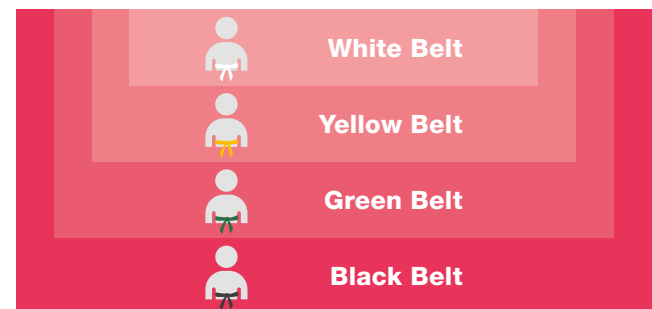

Added value for customers

Understand customer needs and tailor the processes to bring them real value.

What makes the Lean Six Sigma Training Program unique?

- After completing our Lean courses, you will receive an internationally recognised certification, which does not need to be renewed.
- Throughout the hands-on courses, you will look for a solution to your real-life business problem.
- Our tutors rank among the best in innovations and future skills and have extensive experience and professional knowledge.

We offer 4 levels of Lean Six Sigma certification

If you are a less experienced project practitioner looking to demonstrate your commitment to project management, improve your ability to manage larger projects and stand out to potential employers, the CAPM certification is the right choice for you.

Design Thinking

The basis of each innovation is to understand who the customer is, what he feels, what he is worried about and what he requires to satisfy his needs. Design Thinking is an approach focussed on product, service, and process innovation. Its basic principles include having and understanding of the customer's experience, empathy, solution generation, re-application of existing prototypes, and receiving continual feedback followed by adjustments.

ESG & non-financial reporting

Programme ESG & non-financial reporting includes four interrelated modules that will provide you with a comprehensive overview of sustainable development, non-financial reporting, and the latest changes and trends in the ESG. Highly interactive modules will help you to become familiar with ESG regulations and will provide you with clear instructions on how to prepare ESG reports.

Sustainable (ESG) assets and projects

What are ESG investments? What are the rules of environmentally sustainable investments according to the EU Taxonomy? How do you perform climate, environmental and social proofing of investments? What is the relationship between ESG investments and the EU funds rules in 2021-2027? Our comprehensive six-day courses, offered separately for public sector and public enterprises on one hand and territorial self-governments and state sector on the other hand, will provide you not only with rounded key domain knowledge, but also with an opportunity to apply it to real cases studies during interactive workshops.
