Daniel Feder has been appointed the Leader of the Assurance team in PwC Azerbaijan

Baku-23 July 2012- In this new role Dan will be responsible for leading the successful and growing PwC Azerbaijan Assurance practice, providing local and multinational clients a range of audit and assurance related services.

Dan was born in Brooklyn, New York, USA. He graduated from the University of Akron (USA) with a degree of Bachelor of Science in Accounting and became a Certified Public Accountant and a Member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Dan later became a New Zealand Chartered Accountant and is a Member of the Member of the New Zealand Institute of Chartered Accountants (NZICA).

Dan joined PwC Azerbaijan from his previous position of a Senior Assurance Partner for PwC Kazakhstan, responsible for the audits of a significant portfolio of clients in various industries, with emphasis on oil and gas. Dan also led the establishment of the new PwC practice in Ulaanbaatar Mongolia in 2010.

Prior to his arrival in Kazakhstan, Dan had been the Assurance Services Leader for PwC in Egypt and in Bahrain, and led audits of major operations of multi-national companies.

Dan had joined PwC in New Zealand in 1992 and as an Assurance Partner, led statutory audit, internal audit and risk assurance services. He was a member of the Professional Practices Board of the NZICA and helped promulgate professional practice standards for the New Zealand accounting profession. He was also a judge for the Institute's Annual Report Awards.

In his new position in Baku, Dan will work closely with Movlan Pashayev, Country Managing Partner of PwC Azerbaijan, as well the other partners of the Firm to serve our global and local clients in Azerbaijan.
