PwC Georgia names new Country Managing Partner

Lasha Janelidze - New Country Managing Partner effective from 1 July 2018.

Lasha succeeds Altaf Tapia, who will be relocating to Canada. Under Altaf's leadership, PwC in Georgia strengthened its market position, developed and expanded its service offerings into number of new areas. The firm has built up a strong platform to enable further future growth.

As the new Country Managing Partner, Lasha Janelidze will lead more than 100 professional staff in its Tbilisi office and will focus on strengthening the firm's position.

Lasha joined the firm in 2005, and has 16 years of professional working experience. He is a Fellow Certified Chartered Accountant (FCCA).
