Diversity & Inclusion Benchmarking Survey

Financial Services Data Sheet

- 500+ Corporate Respondents
- 5 Regions
- 34 Countries
Many Financial Services (FS) organisations have publicly declared their commitment to Diversity & Inclusion (D&I) for some time now, but how have they translated strategy into execution and what impact is it having on the employee experience? PwC’s D&I Benchmarking Survey finds out.

Diversity still a barrier to progression
FS organisations are struggling to help translate D&I strategy into action. While D&I is a stated value or priority area for 78% of organisations, 34% of respondents still feel their individual diversity is a barrier to employee progression.

Few D&I programmes reach full maturity
Only 5% of surveyed FS organisations’ D&I programmes reach the highest level of maturity when assessed against the four dimensions of PwC’s D&I maturity model.

1. Understanding the Facts of Today (UFT): Initiating a continuous data-driven process for understanding the facts of what’s happening in the organisation today
2. Building an Inspirational Strategy (BIS): Creating a business-focused vision and strategy for D&I that reflects the reality of today and the real potential of tomorrow
3. Developing Leadership Engagement (DLE): Engaging leadership around an inspirational D&I strategy by articulating the business case and establishing supportive governance
4. Creating Sustainable Movement (CSM): Executing the D&I strategy across all elements of the business

D&I programme goals
While more than half of the FS organisations surveyed (61%) leverage their D&I programme to attract talent or comply with legal requirements, a smaller percentage are leveraging D&I to achieve business results or respond to customer expectations.

The primary objective of D&I is to...

- 45% Attract and retain talent
- 17% Achieve business results
- 16% Comply with legal requirements
- 15% Enhance external reputation
- 7% Respond to customer expectations

Programme oversight
While D&I survey data indicates that having a dedicated C-Suite D&I leader can be a differentiator among organisations where diversity is not considered a barrier to progression, only 15% of FS organisations surveyed have adopted this programme structure.

The D&I programme leader is...

- 24% Staff with non-D&I responsibilities
- 15% Peer to C-Suite
- 28% No D&I leader in place
- 33% Reports to senior executives

Percentages do not add up to 100% as some respondents opted out of questions which did not allow for them to be fully assessed against certain dimensions of the maturity model.
Accountability for D&I results

Tasking leaders with specific D&I goals is key to driving results. Despite this, just under a third of FS organisations surveyed have adopted this practice (28%) and fewer measure progress towards the achievement of these goals.

Training programmes in place

A leading practice is to provide training on how to embed inclusive behaviours into everyday job responsibilities. Yet, only 24% of surveyed FS organisations adopt this practice.

Training programmes focus on...

- Non-discrimination & regulatory compliance: 54%
- Embracing difference: 43%
- Overcoming unconscious bias: 46%
- Managing diverse populations: 25%
- Embedding inclusive behaviors: 24%

Role of affinity networks/resource groups

While the majority (74%) of FS organisations have affinity groups, they are mostly used to execute programmes (e.g., Speaker’s Series), rather than to inform decision-making and drive business priorities.

Affinity groups at my organisation...

- No affinity groups: 26%
- Provide support and mentorship: 35%
- Connect people: 38%
- Execute programmes: 42%
- Leveraged to drive strategic priorities: 20%

Leveraging data

Driving sustainable change requires effective monitoring efforts. Most organisations track employee demographics (e.g., gender), but significantly fewer measure discrepancies in compensation, performance, or promotions based on these attributes.

My organisation gathers and analyses the following types of data...

- Employee demographics: 52%
- Discrepancies in performance: 22%
- Discrepancies in compensation: 23%
- Discrepancies in promotions: 19%
- Feedback from customers: 11%
- None: 12%
