Create value, build trust

We help our clients find business solutions by combining a global mindset with the expert talents of our people. We provide industry-focused assurance, tax and legal, advisory and consulting services for public and private clients. We use our network, experience and business understanding to build trust and create value for our clients.

PwC network structure

The PwC global network is structured as a network of member firms, operating independently in countries around the world. It is this network that provides PwC firms with the flexibility to share knowledge, skills and resources with speed and consistency – to the ultimate benefit of our clients.

In most parts of the world, the right to practice accountancy, legal or other professional services is granted only to nationally-based firms employing qualified professionals. Consequently, PwC member firms are locally owned and managed in each country, but form an international team, thereby enabling a deep understanding of local markets and simultaneously providing global insight.
Our purpose

We strive to fulfill our purpose through our contribution to solving major challenges and supporting key initiatives for the positive development of Indonesia. Some examples are:

Build trust and solve important problems

At PwC, our purpose is to build trust in society and solve important problems. Our purpose is founded in our heritage of creating trust in the capital markets and providing advice to help public, private and voluntary organisations be successful. Our aim is that while describing our work today, our purpose will also guide our decision-making and investment strategy for tomorrow, ensuring our ongoing relevance and leadership in the marketplace.

Promoting Smart Cities

PwC Indonesia, with research support from Oxford Economics, launched “Building Indonesia’s Future – unblocking the pipeline of projects”, a forecast for Indonesia’s capital projects and infrastructure spending to 2025. The report looks at infrastructure spending in Indonesia and compares projected spending to the Government’s targets. The main objective of this report is to help the Indonesian Government and the private sector to work towards achieving the country’s infrastructure goals.

Supporting the development of business – CIO & CFO Forums

PwC Indonesia has facilitated quarterly forums for CIOs and CFOs since 2014. The objective of the workshops is to provide a platform for CIOs and CFOs to discuss, network, share knowledge, and together solve common issues or problems facing business in Indonesia.
Knowledge Partner for BKPM

PwC Indonesia was appointed as the independent knowledge partner for BKPM (the Indonesian Investment Coordinating Board) for the revision of its policy on foreign investment restrictions (known as the Negative Investment List/DNI). The revision was intended to provide more certainty to investors as part of the Indonesian Government’s series of economic packages to attract more foreign direct investment.

Cybersecurity Adviser for the Ministry of Communications and Informatics of the Republic of Indonesia (“Kominfo”)

PwC Indonesia was appointed as the cybersecurity adviser for Kominfo to help prepare the cybersecurity standard implementation roadmap for Indonesia, covering cybersecurity standards (policy, structure, process, people and technology) and highlighting the existing gaps in practice. PwC recommended 16 initiatives (categorised into six groups) ranging from establishment of policies and regulations, cyber risk management, capabilities development, cyber awareness, CSIRT establishment and knowledge sharing.

Manado International Conference on Tourism Investment

PwC Indonesia assisted BKPM (the Indonesia Investment Coordinating Board) in developing the conceptual master plan and roadmap for Manado’s tourism-related infrastructure to showcase the city’s vast investment opportunities to international and local investors in May 2017 at the Manado conference.

With this in mind, we are committed to providing our people with learning experience that helps them develop the skills across the five dimensions of the PwC Professional framework, i.e. Leadership, Business Acumen, Global Acumen, Relationships and Technical Capabilities.

Some of our key initiatives include the BeLIEVe program (Becoming Leaders who Inspire, Empower, and create Value), Journey for Excellence and Genesis Park (Global), and tours of duty for our high-performing staff across the PwC network.

It’s also about keeping you up to date with current business issues and regulatory changes through the firm’s various publications, reports, events and webinars.

People Engagement

As part of continuous improvement efforts, we seek feedback from our people through our annual Global People Survey. In ensuring that we are on the right track to making PwC a responsible organisation that provides its people with a great place to work, we review how effective our people initiatives are and how we can improve.
Through our Corporate Responsibility (CR) agenda, we aim to be a catalyst for change, which is about using our skills, voice, and relationships to work with others and influence activities that make a difference, create change and have a lasting impact on the world around us, and doing the right thing, which means playing our part on responsible business issues that are central to our business – from the quality of our services and the diversity of our people, to our engagement with communities and our environmental footprint.

These aims form the core of our global CR Strategy and across the PwC network, our firms support these goals. Our CR strategy is tailored to our specific strengths and opportunities, as a network of professional services firms. To align and structure our CR activities, we focus on four areas in which PwC people across the world can play their part: responsible business, diversity and inclusion, community engagement, and environmental stewardship.
Diversity and inclusion

In a competitive market, people are integral to an organisation's performance and business success. Building an equal, diverse and rewarding workplace culture helps to ensure this. In achieving a high-performance corporate culture, our talent management strategy includes workplace activities such as people development and global mobility.

Our collaboration with Gerakan Indonesia Mengajar (GIM) and Kick Andy Foundation are part of our CR initiatives - an opportunity to share and contribute within the skilled volunteering area, using our core competencies.

Community engagement

PwC people are inspired to help and connect with the communities in which they live and work.

Our two main initiatives are the People Giving programme and Community Day where all staff are eligible for two days of community service leave each year.

The Learning Farm (TLF)

PwC has supported and funded TLF’s four-month residential life-skills training programme for vulnerable youth through the medium of organic farming.

Capacity building through simple audit simulation workshop

PwC Indonesia also believes that high quality human resources is the first and foremost priority in providing the best quality of services to our clients. In an effort to develop human resources in Indonesia, particularly in accounting, we hold simple workshops at several leading universities in Indonesia to increase the knowledge of students who are aspiring to have a promising career as auditors. In the workshops, students are given case studies related to current business practice which allow them to act as auditors.

Environmental stewardship

Business, government and individual – we are all responsible for the preservation of our natural environment. We work with our S&CC (Sustainability and Climate Change) team in developing our carbon management strategy.

Our activities currently include measuring our environmental impact and developing initiatives to reduce the impact of our operations. We also engage our people in environmental activities including Earth Hour.

Responsible business

PwC is looking to build corporate responsibility into relevant services and products where it will help us to deliver enhanced quality and value.
Taking our leadership position in the marketplace seriously
