Kenya

The Kenyan economy is projected to grow by 5.8% in FY2013/14 compared to 4.7% in FY 2012/13. These results have been achieved despite the uncertainties related to the general elections, change to devolved governance and insecurity. Improved growth was recorded in the following sectors of the economy:

- The financial services sector grew by 7.2% compared to 6.5% in FY 2012/13 thanks to growth in services to SMEs and previously unbanked populations;
- Transport and communication grew by 6.0% compared to 4.7% in FY 2012/13 attributed to infrastructure development;
- Building and construction grew by 5.5% compared to 4.8% in FY 2012/13 due to increased investment in the sector by both government and the private sector; and
- Manufacturing sector recorded a higher growth of 4.8% in the year compared to 3.2% in FY 2012/13 due to increased household consumption.

Inadequate rainfall and significant fall in global prices of coffee and tea led to a reduced growth of 2.9% in agricultural sector compared to 4.2% in the previous year.

Tourism earnings declined by 2.1% impacted mainly by insecurity.

In addition, inflation eased from an annual average of 7.5% in FY 2012/13 to 5.7% in FY 2013/14 due to the tightening of monetary policies.

The priority areas highlighted in the FY 2013/14 budget include the following:

- Increased infrastructure investment in the transport network;
- Expanding agro-processing to foster export growth;

The Ugandan economy grew by 6.0% in FY 2013/14 compared to 5.1% in FY 2012/13 and 3.4% in FY 2011/12. The growth is attributed to improved agricultural production, stronger industrial performance, increase in wholesale and retail trade activities, and improved performance in transport and telecommunications.

Uganda’s inflation increased from 3.6% in May 2013 to 5.4% in May 2014.
