In brief

Pursuing the order of the Kazakhstan Minister of Finance No. 927, dated 13 September 2021, the “Income and property tax return” (Form 270.00) was approved. Form 270.00 will gradually replace the “Individual income tax return” (Form 240.00).

In details

Individuals (citizens of KZ, foreigners, or stateless persons) who entered the 1st stage of Universal filing (UF) submitted the “Assets and Liabilities tax return” (Form 250.00), for the 2020 reporting tax period.

First stage captured government employees, individuals authorized to perform governmental functions, individuals equated to personnel assigned to perform governmental functions (heads of quasi-state companies, heads of state institutions, deputies of Parliament and Maslikhats, akims of all levels, etc.), large bank shareholders, large insurance organizations shareholders, large holders of securities, as well as their spouses.

Since Form 250.00 is a one-time entry declaration, the above mentioned individuals are required to submit the Form 270.00 annually, as of 1 January 2022.

The rest categories of individuals will be required to file the Form 270.00 annually, upon entering the UF, i.e. submission of the one-time Form 250.00. Form 240.00 is still valid and is required until abolished.

The deadline for Form 270.00 submission is as follows:

- hard copy - no later July 15 of the year following the reporting calendar year;
- electronically - no later September 15 of the year following the reporting calendar year.
