

Kazakhstan is under a state of emergency

Contacts

Timur Zhursunov

Partner
Tax and Legal Services
timur.zhursunov@pwc.com

Yerkebulan Rakhmenov

Senior Manager
Legal Services
yerkebulan.rakhmenov@pwc.com

Alima Syrayeva

Manager
Legal Services
alima.syrayeva@pwc.com

Azamat Imanbayev

Senior Associate
Legal Services
imanbayev.azamat@pwc.com

If you are interested in additional information, please contact us.

In brief

The President of Kazakhstan, Mr. Kassym-Jomart Tokayev signed the decrees on introduction of a State of Emergency in all regions of Kazakhstan for the period from 5 January 2022 till 19 January 2022.

In details

According to the decrees of the President, in all regions of the country there are:

- curfew from 23:00 to 07:00;
- commandant's offices, headed by the chiefs of the police, are being created;
- restrictions on freedom of movement, including vehicles, are established;
- limited entry to and exit from each region;
- conducting document checks, personal searches, inspection of things and vehicles;
- mass events are prohibited;
- sale of weapons and ammunition is prohibited, a special regime has been established for the circulation of drugs and alcohol;
- weapons and ammunition will be temporarily confiscated from residents for the period of the state of emergency.

In order to ensure security in Kazakhstan, a temporary restriction on access to the internet has been introduced.

If you are interested in additional information, please contact PwC specialists working as part of a group serving your company, or to any of the persons listed.