Briefly

The Minister of Finance adopted the Order dated 10 August 2023 No. 846, introducing amendments to the Rules for Public Procurement (the “Rules”).

In details

The amendments to the Rules envisage the following:

- Issues of return and retention of security measures of the advance payment, if it is included in the agreement.
- Clarification of the procedure for the formation of an expert commission or the appointment of an expert to give an opinion on the conformity of the purchased goods, works, services.
- Requirements for the exact characteristics of the proposed products.
- Requirements for specifying information about parts of product sets.
- Issues of accounting for the experience of contractors for works and services for current repair works.
- Requirements for the financial stability of suppliers operating as an insurance (reinsurance) company.

The amendments to the Rules came into force on 30 August 2023.
