

The EAEU has introduced changes to the format of indicating the expiration date of medicines

Contacts

Elena Kaeva

Partner
Tax and Legal Services
elena.kaeva@pwc.com

Timur Zhursunov

Partner
Tax and Legal Services
timur.zhursunov@pwc.com

Yerkebulan Rakhmenov

Director
Legal Services
yerkebulan.rakhmenov@pwc.com

Briefly

The Board of the Eurasian Economic Commission made changes to the format of indicating the month and year of expiry date of medicines.

In details

The changes are made to the Recommendation of the Board of the Eurasian Economic Commission of 26 February 2020 No.2 "On the guidance for calculating the date of commencement of the shelf life of finished dosage forms of medicinal products for medical use and veterinary medicinal products".

The changes provide flexible formats for indicating the month and year of expiry date. The Recommendation was published on the website of the Eurasian Economic Commission on 20 September 2024 and enters into force after 180 calendar days from the date of official publication.

Are you interested in this topic?

- We would be pleased to discuss with you the above amendments and how they can impact your business.
- We can analyze and implement possible steps to ensure compliance with the new requirements.

If you are interested in additional information, please contact PwC specialists working as part of a group serving your company, or to any of the persons listed.

If you are interested in additional information, please contact us.

