In detail:

- "B10", "C3" and "C9" categories of visa can be changed to "C2" (work visa);
- an investor visa can be issued for up to 5 years;
- the number of countries eligible to receive electronic single-entry business, tourist and medical treatment visas to Kazakhstan is extended to 109;
- visa C5 for business immigrants can be issued without applications from local executive bodies. This visa is required for foreigners who want to come to Kazakhstan and register a company here. Previously, to get such a visa, a letter from the Akimat was required;
- visa category C7 (missionaries) can be extended based on written consent from religious authorities.
