

IFRS 9 Financial Instruments – Banking and Financial Institutions

Learning objectives:

- Application of IFRS 9 classification and measurement rules
- Practical experience with impairment models
- Introducing the disclosure requirements of IFRS 9

Learn the following from the training:

- Practical knowledge of IFRS 9 classification and measurement
- Using IFRS 9 as a financial asset impairment model

Who is this training for?

Risk analyst

Financial analysts

Internal auditors

Accountants

Training tutors

Baasanjargal
Munkhjargal
Senior Manager

Khoszul Purevnamjil
Manager

Educational and Professional Experience:

- Extensive knowledge of accounting, financial reporting, and investments prepared in accordance with IFRS.
- Vast experience in providing audit and consulting services to the banking, non-banking financial institutions, mining, real estate management, and retail sectors.

Educational and Professional Experience:

- Extensive knowledge of accounting, financial reporting, and investments prepared in accordance with IFRS.
- Extensive experience in providing audit and consulting services to banking, non-banking financial institutions, brokerage, mining, and real estate sectors.

Training agenda

Introduction to financial instruments

Classification and measurement of financial assets

Financial liabilities under IFRS 9

Impairment

IFRS 9 disclosure requirements

Detailed information

Training date: 23 May 2025

Training fee: 600,000₮ + VAT

Registration: 9:00 – 9:30

Workshop: 9:30 – 17:00

Certificate: PwC attendance certificate will be provided.

Contact us:

☎ +976 7000 9089

✉ mn\_academy@pwc.com

Please find the 2025 training schedule of PwC's Academy through this link:
Click here