Hello, I'm Nikita.

Hello, I'm Guy.

I'm aiming to become an accountant by completing the ACCA Qualification.

I believe I can balance work and studies, and I'm eager to gain practical accounting experience.

I prefer to concentrate on my studies and begin working later.

The work & study route suits me best. I can work three days a week with PwC and study ACCA full-time.

I'll choose the full-time study route to dedicate all my time to studying ACCA.

Full-time employment with PwC prepares you to excel in meeting ACCA's Practical Experience Requirements (PER), find out more on www.accaglobal.com/gb/en/student/practical-experience-per.html
