The Academy continuously seeks to embark on new projects ... indeed we are presently going through some exciting times.

In December 2017, PwC Malta acquired the Richard Clarke Academy (RCA Malta), one of the leading ACCA training providers locally. Having been set up in 2008, RCA Malta has provided guidance and offered support to hundreds of students who have successfully achieved their ACCA qualification. Coupled with PwC's experience in learning and education, the proven knowledge and dedication of seasoned RCA professionals will continue to provide accountancy students with the best platform to start their career through our Academy which has, in the past weeks, already acquired the much coveted ACCA Platinum Learning Partner status.

From 1 April 2018, the tuition of all ACCA papers will be delivered from The PwC Hub, a new state-of-the-art 2,000 square metre building, which will offer students 'a space where they can experience, learn & innovate'. This is an ambitious project, one which will undoubtedly provide the Academy's students with an exciting learning experience.

The Diploma in Accounting and Business

With effect from December 2011, the ACCA Diploma in Accounting and Business was launched as part of the new Foundations in Accountancy suite of qualifications.

This Diploma provides a flexible open entry route into the Skills module of the main ACCA Qualification for candidates who do not start their ACCA Qualification studies with the usual entry requirements. The Diploma in Accounting and Business is awarded on the completion of the exams:

Business and Technology, Management Accounting and Financial Accounting, and the Foundations in Professionalism module (an online ethics module).

It is important to note that these 3 exams within Foundations in Accountancy are exactly the same as the first 3 exams of the ACCA Qualification and share identical syllabuses, study guides and assessment methods. Students who successfully complete the Diploma in Accounting and Business via Foundations in Accountancy can transfer to the ACCA Qualification and commence their studies from the fourth paper onwards of the ACCA Qualification.

The Diploma will also be available to ACCA registered students who register directly for – and pass – the Fundamentals Knowledge module papers:

Accountant in Business; Management Accounting; and Financial Accounting; and who successfully complete the Foundations in Professionalism module.

Completion of Foundations in Professionalism is compulsory for students who wish to be awarded the Diploma in Accounting and Business. It is free of charge and can be accessed from the ACCA website. You can complete Foundations in Professionalism before or after completing the exam component of the Diploma in Accounting and Business. This is an online, interactive module, designed to help you develop your understanding of what it means to act professionally and ethically in the work you carry out.

Who is the Diploma aimed at?

The Diploma is suitable for those aspiring to work, or already working, in the following types of roles:

- Basic bookkeeping
- Trainee accountant in a commercial organisation or accounting practice
- Accounts clerk in the public sector.

The Diploma in Accounting and Business is broadly equivalent to HND level/the first year of a degree.

How is the Diploma structured?

The Diploma in Accounting and Business consists of three exams:

- FBT, Business and Technology
- FMA, Management Accounting
- FFA, Financial Accounting

These three exams will also be the same exams as:

- Paper BT, Business and Technology
- Paper MA, Management Accounting
- Paper FA, Financial Accounting

Who will be awarded the Diploma?

To be awarded the Diploma, all three of Papers FBT (AB), FMA (MA), and FFA (FA) must be passed or exempted, with at least one of the three papers having been taken and passed from December 2011 onwards. In addition, the Foundations in Professionalism module must also be successfully completed before the Diploma can be awarded.

Please note that the Diploma certificates can be downloaded directly by the student from the myACCA website.

The Advanced Diploma in Accounting and Business

The Advanced Diploma in Accounting and Business will be awarded when students have completed or are exempt from the Fundamentals level exams of the ACCA Qualification. Students will also need to complete the Professional Ethics module in order to receive certification for the award of Advanced Diploma in Accounting and Business. Please note, students will need to have taken and passed at least two of the six Skills module papers in order to qualify for the Advanced Diploma. The Advanced Diploma in Accounting and Business will be awarded to students who complete the Fundamentals level exams from the December 2011 exam session.

Exams

The ACCA Qualification exam syllabus is divided into two levels; Fundamentals and Professional. The Fundamentals level is divided into two modules: Knowledge and Skills. You can register at any time of the year. You can register with ACCA online, via the website www.accaglobal.com. You can enter for your exams online via myACCA except for the first 3 papers. For these 3 papers, you have to apply and pay at the Academy. Exam dates will be provided well in advance before exams start.

ACCA can take up to 7 working days from ACCA receiving your application to you receiving your registration confirmation. It is especially important to allow this amount of time if an exam entry closing date is approaching. This allows ACCA time to contact you should there be any issues with your initial application.

Fees

In your first year you'll have to pay for your initial registration fee and your subscription fee if you become a student before 7 May. This is because you're eligible to sit for more than one exam session in a calendar year.

After that your annual subscription fee is due and payable on or before 1 January each year if you wish to remain an active student. We send you an invoice every November – and you have three months to pay it. You need to pay this even if you don't plan to take any exams that year.

And if you forget to pay, you may be removed from the register of students and have to pay a re-registration fee, as well as any outstanding fees, to enable you to continue with your studies. Remember, you have to pay this whether or not you're planning to take exams that year.

Initial Registration (both FIA and ACCA students)	£89 to ACCA + €62 to MIA + €75 to MIA pro-rata
Re-registration (no outstanding balance)	£89 to ACCA + €62 to MIA
Re-registration (outstanding balance)	£89 to ACCA + €62 to MIA + Outstanding Balance to ACCA and/or MIA

These fees become annual subscription fees payable on 1 January for every year you are registered as a student. The 2021 ACCA annual subscription fee is £112. The 2021 MIA annual subscription fee is €75.

The Seven-Year Rule

The rule means you have seven years to pass the exams at Professional level. The time limit starts when you pass your first Professional level exam. If you don't pass all the Professional level exams and reach affiliate status within seven years, you'll lose any Professional level passes achieved more than seven years ago and you'll need to re- take that 'expired' exam to complete the qualification.

Example Scenario;

If you passed your SBL exam in December 2010 it will be given an 'expiry date' of December 2017. If you have not completed all exams by December 2017 as your SBL exam expires then you will be required to re-take SBL.

There are no time limits for passing the Foundation level exams as part of Foundations in Accountancy or for taking exams AB-FM at the Fundamentals level of the ACCA Qualification.¹

The new Ethics and Professional Skills module is designed to increase the student's employability. It develops the full spectrum of advanced ethical and professional skills, exposing you to realistic business situations.

The PwC Academy

Introduction

PwC's Academy is a training and development concept created by PwC for all those who wish to keep up-to-date with current professional developments and modern practices. With its suite of business and IT courses, the Academy caters for professionals from all other sectors.

In 2014, PwC was licenced by the MFHEA as a Higher Education Institution (Licence No: 2007-TC-004).

In December 2017, PwC Malta acquired RCA Malta, one of the leading ACCA training providers locally. Having been set up in 2008, RCA Malta has provided guidance and offered support to hundreds of students who have successfully achieved their ACCA qualification. In the past weeks, PwC Academy has already acquired the ACCA Platinum Learning Partner status.

Why should you choose PwC's Academy for your tuition?

Our defining features are:

1. Our tutors – very experienced in their field, most of them with loads of teaching experience. Our tutors are available to help you out, even on a one to- one basis.
2. Our materials - research based, user friendly and exam focused. They are the most innovative on the market. Importantly, our materials are consistent.
3. Computer-based exams – We are proud to have been the first Academy to offer this service to Maltese students. CBE offers great advantages to students doing AB, MA and FA exams:
 - a. Flexibility - You are not restricted to June and December paper-based examination sessions as you can sit CBE at any time of year. CBE also offers flexibility for re-sits, which you can take at any time. There is no restriction on the number of times you can resit the examinations by CBE.
 - b. Instant feedback – Your result is displayed on the computer screen at the end of the examination.
 - c. Results are uploaded by the licensed centre and will be transferred to your ACCA account within 72 hours
4. Learning Management System – At last, technology used for a real educational purpose. The online support is called the learning management system (LMS)– because it runs alongside your course. It understands where you are – what you're good at and what you're not and then adapts itself to ensure that you are learning appropriately even when not physically with us.

And there's more...

5. Motivation – We could have gone down a much cheaper route and let the teaching, materials and online parallel speak for itself. However, we did not want this. For us, respect for students is vital and that is reflected in everything we do.
6. Our facilities – From 1 April 2018, all classes will be held from The PwC Hub, a 2,000 square metre state-of-the-art building in Qormi, adjacent to PwC offices.
7. Drop-in days – Our tutors are available to meet students on a one-to-one basis to explain their difficulties. There will be a number of drop-in days during the year and this is for FREE!
8. Pass guarantee – should the unthinkable happen, then you are more than welcome to attend with us again – for free. That's right for free! So basically, you pay your money and we guarantee your success!
9. Free events – During the year, we may hold free events, even in collaboration with ACCA. One such recent example was an information meeting (held in February 2018) on the new changes to the ACCA qualification.

When are lectures held?

Lectures are held during the week between 6pm and 9pm. On Saturdays, they are held between 9am and 2pm. Lectures are held at, The PwC Hub - our new state-of-the art premises in Mill Street, Qormi.

Student Complaints Procedure

PwC's Academy strives to achieve the best possible experience for its students, but we understand that there may be times when a student is dissatisfied with some aspect of what we have delivered or wishes to raise a relevant issue they have.

Informal Complaints

In most instances, the issue can be resolved simply by discussing it with the person/s involved, or raising the matter with a relevant tutor or member of the PwC Academy support team.

Formal Complaints

If the matter is not successfully resolved via informal means, or the issue is of a serious nature, a formal complaint should be made in writing as soon as is reasonably possible. It is much more likely that the matter will be resolved satisfactorily if it is raised at an early stage.

Written complaints should state clearly the nature and origin of the issue/s, detail what steps have been taken to resolve it informally and (if applicable) explain why the outcome of the informal procedure is not considered satisfactory. Complaints should usually be submitted to an appropriate PwC Academy employee so that they may then be assigned to a member of the management team for review.

The manager will contact the complainant to outline the steps they intend to take and to give an indication of the date by which they anticipate being able to conclude their investigation and issue their response.

Once a decision has been made, the complainant will receive a written outcome which sets out details of the findings and, if the complaint is upheld, indicates what action will be taken.

When a student raises a complaint in good faith, PwC's Academy will take reasonable steps to ensure that by invoking the complaint procedures the student is not subjected to less favorable treatment. However, if a student is found to have raised a complaint dishonestly or maliciously, the matter may be addressed through the Student Disciplinary Procedure.

If you have exhausted both your learning provider complaint's process and ACCA's, you can escalate to the appropriate regulator. Details of which can be found on the ACCA website at the following link: <https://www.accaglobal.com/gb/en/footer/toolbar/contact-us/connect/unhappy.html>
