Kick start your career the PwC way as a Lawyer

#MyWayUp

The PwC Law Graduate Programme is a journey which focuses on your development during your studies at University and prepares you for your career as a lawyer at PwC.

Every law student knows how important training, coaching and practical experience in the working environment is.

The PwC Law Graduate Programme aims to provide you with everything you need to start your career on the right path. It is the result of years of experience designing student development programmes and hundreds embarking on these programmes with the firm.

Law Career Guidance Support

The opportunity to meet with HC and an experienced lawyer to guide you on your law career path. You shall receive full support in terms of flexible schedules and career guidance.

Possibility to be included in specialised Law Projects

Students are being given the opportunity to work with a group of other law students and experienced lawyers on relevant and exciting research projects. Furthermore, students will also be given the opportunity to present their findings to the team of experienced lawyers and Partners.

The PwC Graduate programme seeks to help you reach your maximum potential. It is flexibly structured around your law studies and gives you the opportunity to get involved in a wide range of technical training and team-based projects. It also allows you to gain professional experience in different areas of our business, in an innovative way.

If you are a motivated and energetic law student eager to embark on an exciting career that allows you to use your creativity and soft skills, then this is the programme for you.

“At PwC, interns are given invaluable tasks which emulate the duties of a full-time employee in order to gain experience and exposure in as many fields as possible and help propel the student’s career.”
