

Stand out from the rest – Interview tips

Our selection processes will give you the chance to show us your abilities.

And your interest and awareness of business will be assessed amongst others.

Whichever opportunity you are applying for, there are some things that you should be thinking of at interview stage. So we have put together some hints and tips for you:

- Dress in appropriate business wear;
- Research PwC and the position you are applying for;
- Take time to breathe. This can help you keep your mind focused and reduce potential anxiety;
- Listen carefully to what the interviewer is asking you; ask for clarification if you are unsure;
- Express yourself clearly and concisely;
- Be as specific as you can;
- Support your answers with real-life examples from previous experience;
- Express your motivation for applying for the role coherently; and
- Ask for questions about PwC and/or the area you will be working in.
