Admission of new partner John Li How Cheong

PwC Mauritius reinforces its partnership with the admission of a new partner in its Assurance line of service

Ebène – 15 June 2016 – PwC Mauritius welcomes the admission of John Steeves Li How Cheong as a Partner in its Assurance line of service, with effect from 1 July 2016. This new admission brings the number of partners in PwC Mauritius to 9.

John joined the PwC Assurance practice in 1998 as a Senior Associate, to become an Associate Director in 2009. As a key member of the Financial Services Industry Group, he has been focussing on the firm's Asset Management portfolio of clients. He is a member of PwC's technical team, with specific responsibility for Financial Instruments. John has been actively involved in delivering Assurance methodology training and IFRS training to both internal and external audiences.

He has also been part of the review team for the PwC Corporate Reporting Awards for many years, as well as in PwC's recent NextGenFactor talent search programme.

John is among the 24 professionals admitted to the Africa partnership on 1 July 2016, representing all PwC lines of service. André Bonieux, Mauritius Senior Partner, said: 'Each of our partners brings a unique blend of background, education and training to our firm, and we are elated to have John add his to our Partnership team. John has demonstrated his ability to adapt to new challenges, provide outstanding client service, support the careers of those around him and contribute to the success of the firm in the region. I am confident that he is ready to take on the responsibilities that come with partnership and will provide energy and leadership to continue to move the Mauritius firm forward.'

John is a Fellow of the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants. He is married and has two daughters.
