Rising to the challenge

PwC Seminar 2013

Penang

This year we bring you a full-day seminar focused on highlights of Budget 2014, financial reporting developments, key implications of the impending Goods and Services Tax as well as other tax concerns. This annual seminar is brought to you by The Academy, your one-stop learning and business solutions centre.

Programme

Time	Session
08.00 am	Morning coffee & registration
08.45 am	Opening address
09.00 am	Budget 2014: What's in it for you? Our presenter will give you an overview of the proposals from Budget 2014 which will be tabled on 25 October 2013. We will also share analyses of how the key Budget proposals will impact your business, opportunities to leverage and actions to be taken.
10.45 am	Morning refreshments
11.15 am	Financial reporting developments: A peek at the horizon Rapid developments in accounting standard necessitate the need to take a closer look at how business decisions affect the results reported in financial statements. We will share some of these developments including highlighting some aspects of the accounting implications and importance of pro-actively getting the terms and conditions of a transaction right, before commencement. "What you read is not always what you get in accounting terms".
12.45 pm	Lunch
02.00 pm	The Goods & Services Tax: Are you ready for the wave? Our presenter will share with you key implications of the new tax to your business and first-hand implementation experience and the regulator's perspective.
03.15 pm	Afternoon refreshments
03.45 pm	Taxpayers are not cannon fodder: The rise & rise of litigation Our presenter will share with you the increasing robustness of the Malaysian litigation climate and analysis of recent tax cases as well as the importance of tax law principles. We will also take a look at recent trends and developments in domestic and international tax law.
05.00 pm	Seminar ends

* Our presenters will comprise Senior Executive Directors and Executive Directors of PricewaterhouseCoopers and external subject matter expert.
