Programme

Time	Session
8:00am	Registration
8:45am	Welcome address by Lim Huck Khiam, Northern Region Leader, PwC Malaysia
9:00am	Unpacking the key tax proposals from Budget 2026 What are the key measures introduced in Budget 2026 and how will they impact you? PwC tax professionals will share their analysis on the proposals and offer their insights into what they mean for you. Then, they will respond to your questions in a Q&A session.
10:45am	Coffee networking
11:15am	Understanding and managing carbon tax: From emissions reporting to financial impact As Malaysia prepares to implement a carbon tax on high-emission sectors such as iron, steel, and energy, it is essential for accountants to understand its implications for regulatory compliance and financial management. Join us for an overview of carbon tax principles and best practices, from emissions reporting to the implementation of Internal Carbon Pricing, to support effective decision-making and risk management.
12:30pm	Lunch
1:45pm	Latest indirect tax updates and US Tariff impacts for Malaysian exporters Following Malaysia's Budget 2026, our specialist will unpack key indirect tax updates and its impacts. We will also give an update on the implication of the recent US tariff developments for Malaysian exporters—from sourcing and pricing to supply chain planning. Gain clarity on compliance expectations, documentation, classification and tariff mitigation considerations, and take away actionable steps to manage duty exposure, mitigate risks and optimise trade operations.
2:45pm	Stamp duty latest development and self-assessment system What are the latest developments in stamp duty and are you ready for stamp duty self-assessment system? Hear from PwC tax professional on the recent developments and practical guidance on navigating the complexities of stamp duty as you get ready for stamp duty self-assessment system.
3:45pm	Coffee networking
4:15pm	Tax disputes and notable tax cases A discourse on current issues involving tax compliance, audits and investigations with highlights of recent tax cases to help you better manage potential tax disputes and stay compliant.
