A seminar by PwC's Academy

Thursday, 29 October 2026
Renaissance Hotel, Johor Bahru

Budget 2027 is expected to centre on building a human economy, with emphasis on raising growth, improving living standards and strengthening governance.

As the second budget under the 13th Malaysia Plan, it is expected to support reform priorities to advance the country's development agenda while addressing the needs of the people.

Join PwC's specialists for a practical, business-focused seminar on what the Budget 2027 proposals may mean for you and your business.

Programme

Time	Session
8:00am	Registration
8:45am	Welcome address
9:00am	Unpacking the key tax proposals from Budget 2027 What are the key measures announced in Budget 2027, and how could they affect you or your business? PwC tax professionals will analyse the proposals and share practical perspectives on what they may mean for individuals, investors, corporate groups and tax functions. Gain a clearer understanding of how these changes may affect tax planning, compliance and business operations, while having the opportunity to engage directly with our specialists during an interactive Q&A session.
11.00am	Coffee networking
11:30am	Beyond Budget 2027: What should be next on every business leader's agenda? Budget 2027 sets the government's direction, but what comes next? Join our business leaders as they discuss the opportunities, risks and leadership priorities that will shape business success in Johor and beyond in an increasingly complex environment.
1:00pm	Lunch
2:00pm	Futures Thinking: Anticipating and adapting in the AI World As AI continues to reshape how organisations operate, this session covers Futures Thinking, the GenAI landscape, and practical use cases to drive productivity. Participants will have the opportunity to take part in a live demonstration of selected AI use cases, providing a practical view of how GenAI can be applied in tax and finance contexts. The session will also include time for Q&A.
4:00pm	Coffee networking
4:15pm	Dispute Resolution: Managing tax controversy in a changing landscape As tax authorities emphasize transparency and data-driven enforcement, businesses must manage tax disputes proactively. This session examines key dispute trends across corporate tax, e-Invoicing, stamp duty, and indirect tax, concluding with a panel Q&A on common challenges and strategies for engaging authorities.
5:45pm	End
