Honours in Internal Audit Bursary Opportunities

PwC Namibia award bursaries to students in their Honours year studying Internal Audit at an accredited South African university.

Requirements:

- Must be a Namibian Citizen;
- Must be in the final year of a BCom Financial Science / BCom Accounting / B-Tech Accounting degree;
- Acceptance for an Honours in Internal Audit;
- Demonstrating versatility at school/university will be an added advantage that we would consider as part of our awarding of bursaries. Activities may include participation in a sport, occupying a leadership position, participating in a cultural extra mural activity, participating in a science fair, participating in a community activity etc.;
- Other requirements include proficiency in English, strong communication skills, logical thinking to solve problems, working knowledge of technology, good social skills, and be able to work well in a team;
- Students who obtained a bursary from another financial institution that requires the student to complete work after studies, will not qualify for a PwC bursary;
- Shortlisted candidates will be subject to a personality and aptitude test.

Please note you have to register your profile and apply online.
No hardcopy applications will be accepted.
