Public Notice by the Permanent Secretary: Finance dated 4 September 2017 - Second and Last Tax Arrear Recovery Incentive Program

The Ministry of Finance published a "Public Notice" informing taxpayers that a second and last Tax Arrear Recovery Incentive Program will be implemented.

Herewith the highlights covered in the above-mentioned press release:

- 1) The Incentive Program takes effect from 11 September 2017 and ends on 11 March 2018.
- 2) The Incentive Program shall apply to all taxes administered by Inland Revenue Department, including Income Tax, Value Added Tax (VAT), Import VAT, Employee's Tax, Stamp Duty, Non-resident's Shareholders Tax (NRST) and Tax on Royalties.
- 3) Penalties will be waived in full (100%) and 70% of interest will be waived. Provided that the requirements set out below have been met. No tax amount will be waived.
- 4) Taxpayers who intend to participate in the Incentive Program are encouraged to register for such purposes during the months of September and October 2017.
- 5) Settlement of debts can be done as follows:
 1. Where a taxpayer intends to settle the outstanding amounts as a once-off payment, the payment should be done during the months of September and October 2017.
 2. Instalments: First instalment to be made as agreed upon by Inland Revenue Department in the month of registration. Further instalments shall be paid until the debt is settled within the tax incentive period.
Any taxpayer who fails to honour the instalment arrangement may be disqualified from benefiting from the Incentive Program, unless a good cause is shown in writing before any payment becomes due and payable.
- 7) Taxpayers are encouraged to update all their tax accounts by filing all outstanding returns.
- 8) Application forms for the Incentive Program can be obtained from any office of Inland Revenue Department and can also be downloaded on their website (<http://www.mof.gov.na/forms>).
