PwC Careers

PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC), Papua New Guinea's leading professional services firm, invites you to apply for the following opportunity based in Port Moresby:

Strategy and Transformation Manager

Leading our Strategy and Transformation team, you'll be working with senior management and lines of service to support the implementation of the firm strategy and manage change projects. You'll be part of our community of solvers under Internal Firm Services, which support the client-facing business units. You'll focus on driving projects from a people and digital perspective, engaging internal stakeholders in bringing the strategy to life and supporting them as they go through transformation due to changes in business tools as well as other digital and strategic initiatives.

In this role, you will be responsible for:

- driving the implementation of new digital tools and leading the change initiatives required of these, such as training and communications
- championing the use of digital tools in the firm
- bringing innovation and new ideas to improve ways of working
- providing strategic oversight to technical digital projects
- supervising the implementation of learning and development initiatives in the digital space
- managing the local execution of global projects
- collaborating with local, regional and global teams to drive project execution
- managing and coaching a lean team, and guiding team members' career development.

You will be agile in managing multiple projects and stakeholders, and have a collaborative approach to providing solutions to the needs of the lines of service. You will ideally hold a relevant post graduate or tertiary qualification, with a strong change management background and at least five years of experience in a similar role. Experience in managing digital change projects will be ideal.

What you get in return

PwC offers in return an internationally competitive salary package, commensurate with experience, development opportunities and a professional, supportive environment that inspires you to be your best.

We are the leading professional services firm in PNG, working with large local and international clients. We are a dynamic team and we collaborate with our peers across the PwC Network and seek to ensure we are continually innovating and growing.
